Dear Legal@google.com

The following URLs contain infringements belonging to Perfect 10, Inc.

The infringements were found by doing advanced Google searches using the model name on the second line and "nude" on the first line. So, for example, the first URL below was found by doing an advanced Google search using "nude" and "Monika Zsibrita"

Hi Norm,

Your DMCA complaints dated 6/28/04 and 6/1/04 are nearly finished with processing. In order that we may complete this process as quickly as possible, would it be possible for you to provide us with soft copies of the URLs contained in these two complaints? Because these are two separate complaints, it would be very helpful if you could provide two separate soft copies; one for each of them.

We are also in receipt of a third DMCA complaint from you dated 7/11/04. This complaint is also being processed. However, this complaint contained matters of both copyright and trademark. As a result, we asked for a new list of URLs containing only those URLs that you feel are subject to copyright infringement. Please note that, for this complaint, we only need the URLs that were not included in one of your first two complaints. These complaints are, as we mentioned above, being processed separately.

We appreciate your patience and cooperation during this process. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Regards,
The Google Team

Hi Norm,

In accordance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, we have completed processing your infringement complaints. Please let us know if we can assist you further.

Subject: Re: [#10496806] Thank you for contacting Google

Hi Norm,

Thank you for your note. It is our policy to respond to notices of alleged infringement that comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (the text of which can be found at the U.S. Copyright Office website: <http://lcWeb.loc.gov/copyright/>) and other applicable intellectual property laws, which may include removing or disabling access to material claimed to be the subject of infringing activity.

To file a notice of infringement with us, you must provide a written communication (by fax or regular mail, not by email) that sets forth the items specified below. Please note that pursuant to that Act, you may be liable to the alleged infringer for damages (including costs and attorneys' fees) if you materially misrepresent that you own an item when you in fact do not. Accordingly, if you are not sure whether you have the right to request removal from our service, we suggest that you first contact an attorney.

To expedite our ability to process your request, please use the following format (including section numbers):

1. Identify in sufficient detail the copyrighted work that you believe has been infringed upon. For example, 'The copyrighted work at issue is the text that appears on www.google.com/ads.'
2. Identify the material that you claim is infringing upon the copyrighted work listed in item #1 above.

FOR WEB SEARCH, YOU MUST IDENTIFY EACH SEARCH RESULT THAT DIRECTLY LINKS TO A WEBPAGE THAT ALLEGEDLY CONTAINS INFRINGING MATERIAL. This requires you to provide (a) the search query that you used, and (b) the URL for each allegedly infringing search result. Note that the URL for each search result appears in green at the end of the description for that search result.

For example, suppose (hypothetically) that you conducted a search on Google.com using the query 'Google,' and found that the third and fourth results directly link to a webpage that you believe infringes upon the copyrighted text that you identified in item #1 above. In this case, you would provide the following information:

Search query: Google
Infringing webpages: directory.google.com/

8/29/2005

FOR GOOGLE GROUPS, YOU MUST IDENTIFY EACH MESSAGE BY MESSAGE ID THAT ALLEGEDLY CONTAINS INFRINGING MATERIAL. When viewing the article you wish to have suppressed, you will see a link called 'Original Format' beside the header (above the body). After clicking this link, you will be taken to a text version of the article that contains in-depth header information. Find the line called 'Message-ID.' Copy and paste the content of that line (the information contained between brackets) into your complaint.

3. Provide information reasonably sufficient to permit Google to contact you (email address is preferred).
4. Provide information, if possible, sufficient to permit Google to notify the owner/administrator of the webpage that allegedly contains infringing material (email address is preferred).
5. Include the following statement: 'I have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted materials described above on the allegedly infringing webpages is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.'
6. Include the following statement: 'I swear, under penalty of perjury consistent with United States Code Title 17, Section 512, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.'
7. Sign the paper.
8. Send the written communication to the following address:

Google, Inc.
Attn: User Support, DMCA complaints
1600 Amphitheatre Parkway
Mountain View, CA 94043

OR Fax to:

(650) 618-2649, Attn: User Support, DMCA complaints

Regards,

Dear Mr. Rana and Mr. MacGillvary,

We have been complaining to Google for more than three and a half years regarding a massive misappropriation of Perfect 10 images and images belonging to third parties on websites that appear on Google Searches. This situation is very serious as consumers can view almost the entirety of Perfect 10's library over and over without paying anything by utilizing Google search or by looking at our images for free on your servers. It has become clear that you are misappropriating our images and hundreds of thousands of other adult images and offering them for free to drive traffic to your website so you can enhance advertising revenue. You don't need to offer any adult images to be a search engine, let alone hundreds of thousands, many of which are extraordinarily explicit and should not be shown to young kids. In the process of offering thousands of Perfect 10 images for free to drive traffic to your website, you are also using our images to promote three or four hundred thieves who misappropriated our property.

In a prior communication, I attached the declarations of celebrities Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera, Anna Kournikova, Yasmine Bleeth, and Rebecca Gayheart indicating that they have not authorized any celebrity porn site to use their names or images. With this information, our DMCA notices, and the many disclaimers on these sites, you should realize (if you do not already) that virtually all the "celebrity porn" sites that Google has in its search index (those that advertise nude images of mainstream celebrities) do not have the rights to their content. If your company is really serious about respecting intellectual property rights, you should require licenses or some other proof that celebrity porn sites own ANY of their celebrity images. They don't, and you don't have the rights to put these images on your servers either.

When I say, "celebrity porn" website, I'm not talking about the official Britney Spears website, or a free fan site that shows no nudity. I'm talking about a commercial site like celebsdb.com, which is the first site that appears on a Google search for "Britney Spears Nude." This site, which uses stolen Perfect 10 images for the bodies of Denise Richards, fakes on the URL www.celebsdb.com/Denise\_Richards/ (the bodies are Jana Rehackova from Perfect 10 Magazine volume 2 number 2, p 42 - 45, and Tara O'Connor from volume 2 number 2, p 46 - 52) also admits that it does not own its content. These

Dear Mr. Rana and Mr. MacGillvary,

PROCESSED BY FBI IN CONNECTION WITH PERFECT 10, INC. DEFENDANT GOOGLE

We have been complaining to Google for more than three and a half years regarding a massive misappropriation of Perfect 10 images and images belonging to third parties on websites that appear on Google Searches. This situation is very serious as consumers can view almost the entirety of Perfect 10's library over and over without paying anything by utilizing Google search or by looking at our images for free on your servers. It has become clear that you are misappropriating our images and hundreds of thousands of other adult images and offering them for free to drive traffic to your website so you can enhance advertising revenue. You don't need to offer any adult images to be a search engine, let alone hundreds of thousands, many of which are extraordinarily explicit and should not be shown to young kids. In the process of offering thousands of Perfect 10 images for free to drive traffic to your website, you are also using our images to promote three or four hundred thieves who misappropriated our property.

In a prior communication, I attached the declarations of celebrities Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera, Anna Kournikova, Yasmine Bleeth, and Rebecca Gayheart indicating that they have not authorized any celebrity porn site to use their names or images. With this information, our DMCA notices, and the many disclaimers on these sites, you should realize (if you do not already) that virtually all the "celebrity porn" sites that Google has in its search index (those that advertise nude images of mainstream celebrities) do not have the rights to their content. If your company is really serious about respecting intellectual property rights, you should require licenses or some other proof that celebrity porn sites own ANY of their celebrity images. They don't, and you don't have the rights to put these images on your servers either.

Websites in the Google search index that admit that they do not own the rights to their content and typically have misappropriated Perfect 10 images or rights of publicity – if they have not they could at any time - include 1britneyspears.com, 1000celebrities.com, 1024x768wallpapers.com, 3thehardway.nl, aahceleb.com, about-celebs.com, absolutepictures.com, actressesarchives.com, actressgallery.com, all-celebrities.com, aessecelebs.com, alwaysgirls.com, anywallpapers.com, artimages.hpg.ig.com.br, babedump.com, babefocus.com, babeszonewalls.com, bashfulmonkey.com,
