ATTN: Mr. Kyle Wiens, CEO

Dear Mr. Wiens,

I am the Chief Intellectual Property Counsel at STERIS. It has come to my attention that you have been reproducing certain installation and maintenance manuals relating to our products, documentation which is protected by copyright law. An example of this can be found at https://www.ifixit.com/Device/Steris_Harmony. Your own website appears to acknowledge that this constitutes copyright infringement (“They say service manuals are proprietary” <https://www.ifixit.com/Right-to-Repair/Intro>). Please discontinue this willful activity and remove all STERIS copyrighted materials from your site within ten (10) days of this letter. We otherwise reserve all rights in relation to this matter.

Sincerely,

STERIS Corporation
