

Corporate Giving and Sponsorships

The Electronic Frontier Foundation is the leading nonprofit organization defending civil liberties in the digital world. Our work inspires a broad audience of technologists, activists, social media creators, policy wonks, gamers, fan communities, and everyone else who relies on digital tools in their daily lives.

Corporate gifts and event sponsorships offer your company the opportunity to join our movement for a better technological future, whether through cash donations, grants, or in-kind products and services our attorneys, technologists, and activists use every day.
