

Sponsor the EFFecting Change Livestream Series

The Electronic Frontier Foundation is the leading nonprofit organization defending civil liberties in the digital world. EFF's EFFecting Change Livestream Series consists of monthly livestreams that take viewers on a deep dive into the most urgent issues shaping the future of technology with experts from EFF and its peers. Through thought-provoking conversations and inspiring calls to action, sponsoring EFFecting Change offers your company the opportunity to join our movement for a better technological future.
