As I begin to work through this comments it became apparent that I don't have a copy of the actual techniques affidavit that you all discussed with the Court. Unfortunately, [redacted] is out until Monday, so in order that we may all be working off the same sheet of music, would you be so kind to forward to the group a copy of the document that generated the below comments.

Would you all take a look at these comments from the FISC (you can ignore numbers 1 and 9) and let me know your thoughts on them? I will be back in the office on Monday. We are still trying to have these filed by next week. If there are questions that cannot be answered the way the Court is suggesting, please let me know that as well. Thanks. [redacted]

[redacted] and I have met with the Court and got their comments and suggestions on the technique affidavit. Although the comments were numerous, many of these things should be able to be answered fairly easily:
