

Statement by Jack Krumholtz
Managing Director of Federal Government Affairs, Microsoft Corp
October 23, 2007

WASHINGTON – We applaud the USTR’s leadership in bringing about these critical negotiations intended to safeguard the intellectual property created by the technology industry and others. Developing internationally-shared protections against counterfeiting and piracy and a strong framework for enforcement is key to protecting innovation and ensuring that the global economy continues to grow unfettered by IP theft.

-30-

Contact: Ben Hammer, The Glover Park Group, bhammer@gloverparkgroup.com, 202-295-0143